

11/2021

IRU is the global industry association for road transport, driving the sustainable mobility of people and goods across the planet.

Our vision is to be the global leader in connecting societies with safe, efficient and green mobility & logistics.

Our dynamic organisation in Brussels is looking for a

Manager – Passenger Transport

JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Senior Advisor – Passenger Transport, the incumbent is responsible for all matters related to passenger transport. She/he will also be in charge of running the IRU Group “Taxis and Hire Cars with Driver” (TA) and related meetings, events, campaigns and advocacy activities working in close coordination with the Senior Advisor – Passenger. The incumbent will develop trust-based relationships with members, relevant public and private partners, government officials, politicians, industry representatives and other third party stakeholders.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Identify and analyse policy, market and legislative trends, set priorities and develop effective strategies and implementing actions, enabling sustainable operations for taxis in line with IRU’s positions on passenger transport matters
- Develop, as required, actions and positions on legislation
- Monitor and influence the legislative and policy environment
- Prepare and lead and manage the work programme, meetings, events for the IRU Taxi Group
- Attend events and meetings to give public presentations such as representing TA in discussions with EU institutions, unions and other stakeholders
- In conjunction with other functions, develop and build strong alliances with third party stakeholders
- Take a key role in EU digitalisation & data files relevant for passenger transport.

COMPETENCIES, SKILLS & BEHAVIOURS

- Proven ability to conduct, outreach and develop trust-based relationships with government officials, politicians, industry representatives and other third party stakeholders
- Drive a passion for customer and industry understanding and a culture of results
- Positive, agile and prepared to adapt to change with short notice; proven organisational skills
- Excellent interpersonal skills and ability to work effectively in a team
- Strong advocacy writing skills, including position papers, letters, etc.
- Demonstrate an understanding of IRU and its members, clients and the transport industry
- Positive, flexible and adaptable to change, able to be a “hands-on” member of the team when needed
- Able to manage multiple priorities, hardworking, proven organisational skills
- Ability to work with multiple stakeholders around the world
- Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to work effectively with colleagues
- Understands the sense of urgency and driving change

- Embraces cross-functional collaboration to ensure success
- Fosters a winning culture by fully encapsulating IRU's ten Competencies & Behaviours
- Fully committed to IRU and determined to reach our Game Plan objectives
-

QUALIFICATIONS

- Master's Degree in Political Science, Public Policy, or Law or equivalent experience required
- Minimum 3 years of professional experience – includes policy / advocacy work for corporations or trade associations
- Proven ability to understand policy implications and clearly communicate industry positions
- Superior communication (oral and written) and networking skills
- Experience in key EU files for the future of passenger transport such as digitalisation, and/or social affairs is an asset
- Fluent in English. French and/or German a plus. Any other language is an asset